

The FCC should NOT implement this proposal! I feel that my state privacy law is more than adequate. It has reduced the number of pesky calls to our residence by 90%. My wife and I can now usually make it through dinner without being interrupted. I think Indiana's privacy law is an excellent one and should not be preempted by ANY federal law.